Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On my 5th Year Anniversary as your pastor here at Our Lady of Consolation, I wanted to take this opportunity to thank Almighty God and all of you for all we've accomplished together during this time.

I can't believe 5 years has already come and gone! We've faced challenges together, including a world wide pandemic, we've prayed together and enjoyed each other's company.

We've mourned and laughed together, and especially have witnessed to one another the powerful Presence of God. And, the Lord has more ahead for you and I to do as a Parish Family.

May our patroness, Our Lady of Consolation pray for us and guide us as we move ahead together, united in her Son, Jesus.

Thank you for the privilege of serving as your shepherd here at OLC.

And Wilbur thanks you for the treats!

Peace!

Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

God speaks to Job in the First Reading today because Job has undergone a tremendous amount of loss and grief. He has essentially lost everything and try as he may to trust in God and reject the counsel of his friends, he begins to wonder about God's intentions in all of this.

Job's prayers to God seem to have gone unanswered. God responds and reminds Job that He has set the limits and laws of all creation, including the seas, which He has made to not cross the dry land. It is as if God, like a good parent establishing rules at home, has set the "ground rules" for the ocean and all of creation.

God's point in all of this is to remind Job that He has poured out all His love on the creation which He alone fashioned. God is telling Job there is a plan. God's delay in answering Job was needed to fortify his faith and trust. And Job is able then to see his own complaints and disappointment were shortsighted. God was always present to Job and His love for him was always there.

A similar incident occurs in the Gospel, when a late night squall erupts on the Sea of Galilee Jesus and the 12 are in a boat. Our Lord is asleep in the stern. The disciples panic, and like Job wonder if Jesus even cares that they are about to perish. Upon awakening, Jesus immediately responds, quieting the storm, something only God could only do! As His Father challenged Job, Jesus asks His disciples about their faith: He asks if they even have any faith.

Our readings these last two Sundays delve into the reality of God's care for us, His plan and our call to deepen our faith and trust in Him. Whatever storms come up in life, God is with us, even if He seems to be "asleep" as Jesus was.

Not only do these storms not last forever, but our Lord has power over them. We ask Him to strengthen our faith and trust in Him.

In Christ's Peace,

Fr. O'Neill
